- Q: Wants to know how many pizza servings are needed: is it 700 servings?
A: 700 students, but assume 33% of kids will order. Need a vendor that does personal pizzas
    - Q: Is the school paying for this, or is each child?
A: Payments are made via SchoolCashOnline
    - Q: How frequently are we planning to run this?
A: Council to select frequency. Monthly?
  - ping pong tournament – Adeel
    - Adeel to provide update

4. Community Engagement - Mason

- community info nights
- coding night -

5. Administration Report (Susanne Young)

- New Dress Code Policy
  - (Susanne Young) presented a PowerPoint with an overview of the updated policy
- EQAO
  - (Susanne Young) Scores presented and announcement of a webinar for parents who want to learn more about the EQAO and scores
- Other Topics
  - (Susanne Young) Angel program kicks off on Dec 1st. Parents have received communications on the program.
  - (Susanne Young) Diwali History Month and display in Alcove at school
  - (Susanne Young) Color House program has been launched. December is enthusiasm. Teachers reward behaviour with gems, then the student brings the gem to the JC gem jar at the office.

6. New Initiatives

- Community Engagement
  - community info nights
- coding night
- research initiative

- New fundraising idea for a Valentine's Day or Mother's Day -- flower order
  - Consider options for fundraising at Valentine's day
  - (Andre LeFort) Ideas should be inclusive and support the community at school first and foremost. Should also consider fundraising to raise funds with parents (like typical valentine's day gifts)
  - (Clara Liu) Movie Nights or Talent Show
  - (Susanne Young) "Investing in Children" coming to JC to do a literacy night at school (JK to gr 3)
    - School and Council to apply for funding PRO (Parents Reaching Out) Grant.
    - $1,000 cost
- (Andre LeFort) For fundraiser ideas, we recommend a one-pager addressing:
  - What?
  - How?
  - Who?
  - When?
  - Where?
  - Why?

7. Next Meeting: January 25, 2023
